Starting his career as a sole attorney, Anthony Bistany built his practice through word of mouth and his strong local ties throughout New England. Born and raised in Massachusetts, Mr. Bistany's extensive experience as a small business owner in the hospitality and restaurant sector, which includes years of business experience in Boston's historic Faneuil Hall, provides unique insight and background to his representation of his clients in strategy, structuring, negotiation, dispute resolution, and litigation. Mr. Bistany's passion for business and helping others ultimately led him to pursue a law degree at Suffolk University Law School.

Mr. Bistany specializes in business law along with civil and business litigation. He has represented a plethora of clients ranging from individuals, to small and medium sized businesses in the Boston area and throughout Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Along with his successful track record of client wins, Mr. Bistany was selected as one of Super Lawyers Rising Stars of 2021.
