Heather Armantrout's practice focuses on Medical Malpractice Defense and Healthcare Law. After fifteen years as a registered nurse, Ms. Armantrout began her second career as an attorney in 2017. Her extensive experience in the healthcare industry allows her to offer clients a unique perspective and understanding.

Ms. Armantrout graduated in the top third of her class at the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada Las Vegas, where she received Cali awards—Lawyering Process II (legal writing) and Law and Religion with Ninth Circuit Judge Jay Bybee—and the Scribe Award for legal writing. After graduation, she served as senior clerk for the Honorable Jerome T. Tao of the Nevada Court of Appeals. From there, she started her practice in the medical malpractice defense setting.

Outside of the office Ms. Armantrout enjoys spending time with her family, particularly her new granddaughter. Ms. Armantrout also supports the local Las Vegas performing arts groups, and gives back to the community.
